The meeting Commenced at 3 P.M. Two municipal Councillors M. P. Muttamanka and S. Lakshminarayana Rao were nominated as Candidates for the Vice President's Election. Mr P Muttamanka sent a petition to the President on 27-7-1947 asking for adjournment before the Election was held as it is likely members nominated to the Minor Municipal Council could take part in the Elections and whether the President has got a casting vote. It was explained to the member at the outset, that G.O no to 6869 79 and 163-38-2 dated 27-2-39 states that Official members nominated to Town and Minor Municipal Councils may vote at the Elections of Presidents and Vice Presidents of their respective Councils. As regards the point as to whether the President has got a casting vote, it was explained to the member that the rules on the subject relating to the Election of Vice Presidents to Minor Municipal Councils did not give any such power to the President and the rules regarding the procedure for the Election of Vice presidents were read over to the Members. With the consent of the members present, the Election was Commenced
